The Holiday Inn Aachen is located between the interstate A4 and Aachen downtown. You reach the train station with public transportation and you will get connections to the ICE trains. Either you are visiting a congress in Aachen or historic downtown with its cathedral and the town hall - our hotel is popular for businessmen and tourists. In the historical city of Aachen culture meets the modern way of life. The imperial city of Aachen offers you extensive opportunities: from shopping in the new designed pedestrian precinct, visiting historic downtown with the cathedral and city hall up to relaxing in the thermal springs with their sulphuric water. The hotel offers you after an interesting day in Aachen the comfort of W-LAN all over the hotel and invites you into the restaurant or bar.

Arrival by car:

At the Aachen Kreuz intersection take the A4 autobahn toward Aachen, Heerlen, Antwerpen – leave the autobahn at the Aachen-Zentrum exit – turn right at the exit – after the second set of traffic lights you will see "Holiday Inn Aachen" on the right-hand side behind the TÜV building.

Arrival by train:

To reach us from the main station you can take bus line 1, 11, 21 or 46. Buses leave every 10 minutes for the city centre, which is where the main bus station is situated. From here you must travel for 15 minutes on bus line 51 to the bus stop "Polizeipräsidium", which is approx. 100 m away.
